

THE CENTER FOR GLOBAL DIALOGUE PRESENTS
A SANTA BARBARA PUBLIC FORUM

FIXING THE GLOBAL ECONOMY: AUSTERITY, STIMULUS, OR WHAT?

Faulkner Gallery, Santa Barbara Public Library
40 East Anapamu Street - Santa Barbara

OCTOBER 17, 2012

(5:15 PM refreshments • 5:45 PM program begins)

Global economies appear to be fast approaching a financial precipice with no apparent agreement how to fix the problem. Some argue that only the infusion of government spending will help national economies recover while others are equally convinced that government spending would only deepen the crisis. How can we stop this downward spiral?

What are the consequences if we don't?

Featured Speakers

Benjamin J. Cohen, Louis G. Lancaster Professor of International Political Economy, UC Santa Barbara

Peter Naylor, Professor of Economics & Finance, Santa Barbara City College

Guest Moderator

Sander Vanocur, retired journalist and national news correspondent

For more info: SBGLOBAL.WEEBLY.COM

CENTER for GLOBAL DIALOGUE